Activity - quiz
(Report)

A quiz like activity was conducted on 11.2.16.

We were on two teams "super cool" & "spark blinkers". Each team raised questions to the other.

There was a point keeper and time keeper to record the same from each team.

As a member of team "super cool", we raised the questions like,

1) Classic and most basic performance strategy.

    — Minimum input and maximum output.

2) Different steps in software process create.

    — Activity, action and task

3) Classic life cycle model.

    — Waterfall model.

And we were asked some questions like,

    What is IPR?

        Intellectual property rights.

After several questions and dumbcharats like rounds we ended up in a draw. As a result we learnt a lot in subject.

1) M. Vignesh — _H. Vignesh_

2) D. Vignesh (Spark thinkers - captain) _D. Vignesh_

3) Srinivasan — _R. Srinivasan_

4) Anitha — _A_

5) Pavibhta — M. Pari _

6) Juhi Jaing. — _Juhi_

7) ~~Aosoun~~ Sneha Jain. _Sneha_

G. DIVYALAKSHMI.

Our class CSE 'A' II year had conducted a competition on 12.02.2016. We have conducted this competition based on software engineering. We splitted into two groups. I am the member of my team and my team name is spark thinkers and the opponent team name is supercool. We had 6 members in one team. The team members are

Spark thinkers	Super cool.
D. vignesh	M. vignesh
Srinivasan	Latrika
G. Divyalakshmi.	Anitha
Pavithra	Mohanapriya
Juhi Jainaf	snehajain
Kavitha	Shibani Ragu

My team captain is D. vignesh. And then we started to ask the question. We had 60 secs to answer a question and 5 rounds are conducted.

Questions:

1. Which model get repeated continuously
   Ans. Evaluation.

2. Stenography : Ans: hiding one information in another thing.

3. what is meant by IPR → Intellectual property rights.

Among these 5 rounds super cool takes leading place in 4th round. But atleast at 5th round our sir decided to conduct the Dumshartz. Then at the end of this round the match became dr

This session we did a nice time to know some information and it will be useful to us. This technique will increase our understanding & answering the questions capacity.
